THE News, published at Lewiston, has this to say about the independent movement in North Idaho: The independent movement in this locality shows a feeble and sickly life, led, as it is, by one who never yet led party, person, place or paper to success. Whatever strength it may show on election day will be drawn mostly from Republican sources. A few Democrats have been bejuggled into letting their names be used in connection with it, but on election day the party, in accordance with its principles and practice, will vote the straight ticket, "early and often."

LETTERS from the eastern part of the Territory to prominent men in Boise City, says the Statesman, develops the plan laid by Leland and his followers in the north for the election of Brayman, the division of the Territory and the removal of the capital. They make the following count.

Owyhee County.....	Ainslie.	Smith.
Ada.....	100 maj.	50 maj.
Boise.....	stand off.
Cassia.....	50 maj.
Lemhi.....	100 maj.
Oneida.....	200 maj.
Bear Lake.....	300 maj.
Totals.....	800	50

Ainslie's maj. over Smith, 750

They then claim that Brayman will receive the following majorities:

Idaho County.....	200
La. Tab.....	100
Nez Perce.....	500
Shoshone.....	100

Brayman's majorities.....900
Ainslie's majority over Smith.....750

Brayman's majority.....150
These figures are no doubt made out by Ainslie and his followers, to scare the central portion of the Territory into concentrating on one candidate to defeat the new scheme, and of course they expect the Republicans to go over to the Democratic side, the latter being greatly in the majority.

BANNER NEWS.

Messrs. Brown and McDowell deserve great praise for the manner in which they have managed this valuable property. Although the mine has not produced as much bullion this year as last, it was no lack of energy on their part. The mine had to be opened, and under many disadvantages too. Another season will tell the tale.

The Panamint and Silver Chief mines will be better opened during the winter.

There will be twenty men winter at Banner. J. M.

The painful rumor reaches us that a gentleman in Alturas county has challenged three other gentlemen out there to mortal combat on the field of honor. Whether politics, religion, personal grievance or a woman was at the bottom of the affair, we did not learn. A genuine duel, bloodless or otherwise, would give spice to a very dull election campaign.

Hedging Back to Cain.
Detroit Free Press.

A citizen without an umbrella was stowed away in a doorway on Griswold street yesterday afternoon, when a stranger came along and turned in with him, and asked:

"Do you ever bet?"

"Well, sometimes," was the reply.

"Do you want to bet with me?"

"Perhaps. State your proposition."

"You see, I don't belong to any political party in particular, but whoop around on my own hook. A spell ago I made a bet of $5 that Indiana would go Democratic. Then I made another that Ohio would go Republican. Then I turned to and bet that Maine would go for the Fusionists. See?"

"Yes, I see."

"Well, now I want to hedge, and I'll bet you $25 that the verdict of a coroner's jury in the case of Cain and Abel would be that Abel fell down a hatchway and broke his neck. Come, now, you don't bet."

The citizen blustered a little, but the sight of two tens and a five drove him out in the shower.
